

BY THE KING.

A Proclamation for remoouing the Receipt of his Maiesties
Exchequer from Westminster to Richmond.

HE Kings most Excellent Maiestie taking into his Princely consideration the great and dangerous increase of the Plague in and about the Citie of Westminster, where his Maiesties Receipt of Exchequer hath been hitherto kept, and willing as much as is possible to preuent the further danger, which might ensue as well to his owne Officers, which are necessarily to attend the same Receipt, as to other his louing Subjects who shall haue occasion either for receipt, or payment of monies to repaire thither: hath therefore taken order for the present remooue of the receipt of his said Exchequer from thence to his Maiesties house at Richmond in the County of Surrey: and hath thought fit by this his Proclamation to publish the same, to the end, that all persons whom the same may concerne, may take notice whither to repaire vpon all occasions concerning the bringing in, or issuing of his Maiesties Treasure at the receipt of his Exchequer. Willing and requiring all Sheriffes, Bailiffes, Collectors, and all other Officers, Accomptants, and persons whatsoever, who are to pay in any monies into the said Receipt of his Maiesties Exchequer, or otherwise to attend the same, to keepe their dayes and times at Richmond aforesaid, and there to doe, pay, and performe in all things as they should, or ought to haue done at Westminster, if the said Receipt of Exchequer had continued there. And this to be done and obserued vntill his Maiestie shall publish and declare his further pleasure to the contrary. Giuen at the Court at Ricot the one and thirtieth day of Iuly, in the first yeere of his Maiesties Raigne of great Britaine, France, and Ireland.

God saue the King.
